Participants who have an antique (pre-1950) quilt are invited to bring it to class for "show and tell." Tell us what you know about the quilt's history, e.g. its maker, the maker's locale, the occasion for which it was made, its previous owner(s), the pattern, material and anything else you know about the quilt.

Quilt History is the site you should turn to first for information on our quilting heritage. The List discusses antique quilts, methods and fabrics used and the life and times of the women who made them. Archives are available on line. This site haslinks to a number of other historical sites for those who want to research quilt related topics.
